Jack Smith

MOUNTAINFILM WOULD LIKE TO THANK OUR ARTIST CONTRIBUTING WORK FOR THE AWARDS...

JACK SMITH

Jack is recognised as one of the most talented and influential portraitists in America today. A recent show of Taos Portraits garnered a Past Achievement Award from the Peter and Madeleine Martin Foundation for the Creative Arts. Jack will paint a portrait of the Best of Festival Award winner; his work is shown at the Sullivan Goss Gallery in Santa Barbara. www.sullivangoss.com

THOM WHEELER

Wheeler came from Texas to Taos in 1985 and has become a stalwart of the art scene. He exhibits at his studio on Kit Carson Rd and at the Zane Wheeler Gallery. www.taosgalleryassoc.com/gallery/zane-w

KEN O'NEIL

Ken's painting style trends, in his words, toward "the esoteric" wherein the viewer finds understanding "through trials and transformative revelation." His work can be seen at the Fenix Gallery. www.fenixgallery.com

JANE MINGENBACH

Jane's wonderful water colors and Monoprints are hung at the Fenix Gallery. www.fenixgallery.com

LEAH SLATOR

Leah Studied art history at the Art Institute of Chicago and Grinnell College, Iowa. Predominantly a portrait artist, she is currently working mainly in etching and oil painting. She is the Taos County Film Commissioner. www.filmtaos.com

SETH BULLINGTON

Based out of Taos Ski Valley, Seth photographs throughout the Southwest, Alaska, and Hawaii. He specializes in adventure sports, night scenes, fireworks, and concert photography. www.sethbullington.com
