Welcome to the Sixth Taos Mountain Film Festival

Dear Festivarians,

Another fall, another festival, and another year has passed in which the world has warmed another fraction and in which men and women have ventured to the far corners of the globe to bring back stories of triumph and inspiration and, sadly, of loss and despair.

Mountainfilm returns with the best moving and still images of all aspects of our changing world and I, and my staff, trust you will leave Taos with a keener awareness of the challenges facing our planet and a renewed optimism for the future of our wild places.

Yours

Jonathan on the West Rim Trail along the Rio Grande Gorge.
